The Institute for Palestine Studies (IPS) is a private nonprofit research institution unaffiliated with any political organization or government, highly regarded throughout the Arab world as a model of institutional organization and independence. Established in Beirut in 1963, it is the oldest institute in the world devoted exclusively to documentation, research, analysis, and publication on Palestinian affairs and the Arab-Israeli conflict. IPS supports the Institute for Palestine Studies (USA), Inc. in Washington, DC [a 501(c)(3) public charity] and the Institute of Jerusalem Studies in Ramallah (West Bank).

The Journal of Palestine Studies (JPS), launched in 1971, is the oldest and most respected English language journal devoted exclusively to Palestinian affairs and the Arab-Israeli conflict. JPS provides unprejudiced, solid documentation and serious research, free from embellishment, distortion, omission, propaganda, appeal to the emotions, or spin. The guiding principle of JPS and of IPS as a whole regarding Palestine has always been that the facts, coherently presented, speak for themselves.
